

ABOUT FOLIO CREATIVE

Nestor Golets is the principal and Creative Director at FOLIO CREATIVE. He specializes in building custom content publications and marketing solutions for major national advertisers across the full spectrum of brand categories including automotive, travel, lifestyle, financial services and the arts.

A versatile, award-winning, hands-on creative resource, Nestor has extensive experience working in large media organizations including The Globe and Mail and Rogers Publishing.

Nestor's creative strengths combine compelling design concepts with polished art direction, print production know-how and project management expertise.

Literate and editor-friendly, Nestor is adept at the collaborative process of editorial planning and execution, and brings strong copywriting and editing talents to the table.

All this is underpinned by a strategic vision and commitment to reliable service to fulfill client objectives and maximize audience response.

To learn more or see additional portfolio samples, please get in touch.

416.466.6999

nestor@foliocreative.ca